- Lawsuit filed in Beijing Haidian District People's Court on September 2, 2020.
 - The plaintiff is the WFOE and the defendant is Shi Wenyong. This lawsuit concerns the WFOE's application for state compensation to recover value from bank account funds stolen from the Company by Shi Wenyong. This application is based on the error that the Chinese court made in allowing Shi Wenyong and his cohorts to remove more than USD$90 million from the LKM bank accounts inside China while the Receiver was in place. After not getting a response on the application from the Haidian court, the WFOE filed its application with the First Intermediate People's Court on December 3, 2020, and obtained a written decision on December 24, 2020. The Intermediate court ruled that the WFOE should first exhaust all other civil means before applying for state compensation. The WFOE then appealed this decision on January 18, 2021 to the Beijing Higher People's Court State Compensation Commission.
 - Case numbers 2020JING01 WEI PEI 4; 2021Jing Wei Pei Jian7.
- Lawsuit filed in Beijing Third Intermediate People's Court on March 2, 2020.
 - The plaintiff is the WFOE and the defendant is China Merchants Bank (CMB) Beijing Worker Stadium Sub-branch. After completing the change of legal representative, the WFOE repeatedly alerted CMB not to allow anyone to transfer funds from the Company's accounts. However, LKM funds were removed by Shi Wenyong and Xu Zemin. Thus, the WFOE is seeking to hold CMB liable.
 - Case number 2021 Jing03Min Chu524.
